Offender Under Supervision

Nature of Noncompliance: On May 31, 2022, according to an Affidavit for Warrant of Arrest and Detention, deputies with the Travis County Sheriff's Department responded to a domestic disturbance call. Upon arrival, deputies encountered the defendant's partner who stated that he and Manor and gotten into a verbal altercation that led to a physical assault. The victim stated that Manor had struck him repeatedly with a closed fist to the head and upper torso area. Manor placed the victim in a choke hold which impeded the victim's breathing. The victim had visible marks on his body.

Deputies detained Manor for questioning after he was trying to leave the scene in his vehicle. During questioning, deputies discovered in Manor's vehicle a green Crown Royal bag that contained several wallets, 14 credit/debit cards/ 9 driver's licenses/1 concealed carry license/ and 3 social security cards all with various names. Deputies were able to get a hold of 5 of the victims who advised that Manor had no permission to have their possessions.

Manor was taken into custody and charged with the following felony offenses: Assault Family Violence – Impede Breathing – 3rd degree felony (Cause No. D-1-DC-22-203549); Possession of Identifying Information – 3rd degree felony (Cause No. D-1-DC-22-500194); and Possession of Credit Card or Debit Card Information – 3rd degree felony (Cause No. D-1-DC-22-500195). Manor subsequently bonded out for said charges and all cases remain pending in state court.

U. S. Probation Officer Recommendation: The defendant did not only commit an assault but, was in possession of personal identification of others without their permission. He has committed new law violations while on supervision, and a warrant is requested to address the above noted allegations. It is respectfully recommended his term of supervised release be revoked.
